Thank you for your service MTCC AmeriCorps VISTAs! This month the July 2017 cohort of MTCC VISTAs completed their service. The amazing service members supported antipoverty work in Poplar, Pablo, Bozeman, Hamilton, Kalispell, Butte, Missoula, Troy and beyond. Thank you for your gift of a year of your life in service, living at the poverty level and building sustainable programs to address and reduce poverty.

Dr. Kelly Ward was a pioneer in the higher education service learning field. She served as Montana Campus Compact's founding Director of Service Learning from 1993 to 1996, and went on to publish many journal articles, books, and videos advancing best practices in the field. Her professional contributions and scholarly work will continue to have positive impacts for faculty, students, administrators, and community members for years to come. Read more about Dr. Ward's work and legacy here.

Welcome to the MTCC Network Office Team, Meryelizabeth Koepele! Maryelizabeth joins the MTCC Network Office as our VISTA Leader for the 2018-19 program year, after a successful term serving with the Northwest Montana Literacy Center and Flathead Valley Community College.
