MTCC VISTA host site, Salish Kootenai College's Flathead Tech 4 Good Program, hosted their first successful Game Jam of the school year this month, as part of their year-long Gaming the Future project.

Students worked with FT4G partner Native Teaching Aids to create two new games designed to spread awareness and increase knowledge of specific water-based challenges on the reservation.

FT4G will host their Winter Game Jam in February!

THE INTERNATIONAL UNDERGRADUATE JOURNAL FOR SERVICE-LEARNING, LEADERSHIP, AND SOCIAL CHANGE

Undergraduate Journal Call for Papers!

The International Undergraduate Journal for Service-Learning, Leadership, and Social Change is currently accepting papers from undergraduate students for consideration in future volumes. The Journal considers three types of articles:

1. Articles that discuss the development of a service-learning project and the impact of the project on the community served;
2. A case study of a service-learning project;
3. A reflection on service-learning and the development of personal leadership.

Manuscripts must be double-spaced, excluding block quotations which should be typed single-spaced, and references. To ensure anonymity, author's names and affiliation should appear on a separate cover page. Articles should not exceed 15 pages. Authors should follow APA format.

The Journal accepts Book Reviews on service-learning and social change. Book reviews should not exceed 2 pages and include Book Title, Author, and Publisher.

Submissions should be sent in Word format. DO NOT HAVE HEADERS OR PAGE NUMBERING.
