Sparrow's Nest's First Resident Starts College!

For the past four years an emerging nonprofit called Sparrows Nest of Northwest Montana has been making headway on addressing teen homelessness in the Flathead. They do some incredibly necessary work there helping homeless teens with safe housing so they can continue and complete their studies, work, and live. MTCC has watched Sparrow's Nest grow from a good idea hatched by caring community members to an organization with a board, staff and volunteer pool, and is proud to have helped by providing four AmeriCorps VISTAs over the last four years.

MTCC VISTAs Cat Lehnis, Claire Anderson, Molly Neu and now, Jamie Pollard have served with Sparrows Nest, and have helped build new capacity and deeper partnerships in the Flathead, so homeless teens have better access to services, and support.

SERVICE-LEARNING, LEADERSHIP, AND SOCIAL CHANGE

Undergraduate Journal Call for Papers!

The International Undergraduate Journal for Service-Learning, Leadership, and Social Change is currently accepting papers from undergraduate students for consideration in future volumes. The Journal considers three types of articles:

1. Articles that discuss the development of a service-learning project and the impact of the project on the community served;
2. A case study of a service-learning project;
3. A reflection on service-learning and the development of personal leadership.

Manuscripts must be double-spaced, excluding block quotations which should be typed single-spaced, and references. To ensure anonymity, author's names and affiliation should appear on a separate cover page. Articles should not exceed 15 pages. Authors should follow APA format.

The Journal accepts Book Reviews on service-learning and social change. Book reviews should not exceed 2 pages and include Book Title, Author, and Publisher.

Submissions should be sent in Word format. DO NOT HAVE HEADERS OR PAGE NUMBERING.
