College Volunteers Honored Across Montana

SubscribePast IssuesTranslate ▼

Governor's Office of Community Service, we've been honoring college student volunteers from our affiliate campuses this fall. Monica Suek, a Carroll College student, is pictured above with athletic director Charlie Gross and Carroll President Dr. John Cech. "Monica is widely known across campus for the compassion and dedication that drives her to serve in the Helena community. She truly possesses a generous heart. Throughout her time at Carroll, she has been a consistent participant in Service Saturday, as well as the many hours of her own time that she dedicates to a number of other local agencies in Helena. In particular, Monica has dedicated her time to protecting the most vulnerable in our society." Thank you for your service, Monica!

Our other 2018 Volunteers of the Game include:

MSU Northern: Luke Rech

Montana Tech: Nate Younk

Rocky Mountain College: Kelsey Crona

UM Western: Alicia Borst

University of Providence: Alex Williams

George M. Dennison Civic Engagement Scholarship Application Opens

MTCC's George Dennison Civic Engagement Scholarship honors the contributions college students make to community life in Montana and beyond. The $1000 scholarships recognize undergraduate students who have made a significant community-based service effort while pursuing a degree or certificate.

MTCC selects six current undergraduate students who are attending an MTCC affiliate campus. The $1000 scholarships are awarded in these categories (two scholarships per category): tribal and community colleges; 4-year colleges; flagship universities (UM and MSU). The scholarships are a combination of a $500 waiver from the scholarship recipient's college/university, matched by a $500 MTCC check sent to the scholarship recipient's financial aid office.

Application deadline: December 2nd.
